BACKGROUND

The National Land Agency (NLA) is an Executive Agency of the Government of Jamaica and falls under the Ministry of Water, Land, Environment and Climate Change. It brings together the core land information functions of Government under one roof, which includes: Land Titles, Surveys & Mapping, Land Valuation and Estate (Crown Land) Management. This entity enables the Government to build on the synergy of these combined functions and create a modern national land (spatial) information system to support sustainable development.

The Organization currently is dispersed across the island with major offices located in the Corporate Area (Kingston), Mandeville and Montego Bay.

The Land Titles Division of the National Land Agency is responsible for administering the provisions of the Registration of Titles Act, Registration of Strata Titles Act and the Regulations made there under. The difficulties encountered during the processing of Instruments include the following:-

- Incomplete documents presented for registration
- Customers not clear as to the requirements of the Land Titles Division
- Failure to comply with previous requisitions resulting in multiple rejections

The rejection of documents lodged by you our customers has been an ongoing concern of the Agency and we are working assiduously to improve this area of our Business process. We view our relationship with you as a partnership and to this end our goal is to implement measures to rectify this problem.

The Agency is therefore delighted to provide a Land Registration and Conveyancing Training Workshop designed to equip and provide your employees with in-depth knowledge and a comprehensive and detailed consideration of aspects of Land Law and its practice at the National Land Agency.

COURSE INFORMATION

The Course is suitable for Attorneys-at-Law, Paralegals and Secretaries, persons in the banking sector involved in the processing of loans and Conveyancing staff with no formal training. The programme will be offered for eight weeks and a day on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. at the Estate Management Conference Room at 20 North Street, Kingston, the Surveys & Mapping Division Conference Room at 23 ½ Charles Street, Kingston and at the Land Titles Division, 93 Hanover Street, Kingston. Presentations will be delivered by the Agency's experienced team in areas of Land Administration including:

- Land Titling and Registration
- Surveys & Mapping
- Geographic Information Systems

Course Objectives

Upon completion of this Course participants will gain:

- Additional qualifications in Conveyancing, Land Registration and Land Administration
- Improved knowledge and understanding of Land Law
- Knowledge of the requirements/policy of the National Land Agency which should lead to improved quality of documents lodged for registration and fewer errors when preparing transactions
- Increased confidence resulting in minimal referrals to Attorneys-at-Law in your Conveyancing Department

With a structured programme and the provision of the most up-to-date information in the field of Land Law, at the end of this programme there will be improved productivity and efficiency in all Offices leading to better products and services.

Course Support

The Course will offer the following:

- Specially written course Manuals and study materials
- Lectures on specific topics of Land Law
- Additional reference material on CD ROM
- Hands on training on aspects of land administration and titling

Class Size: The minimum class size is sixteen (16) persons.

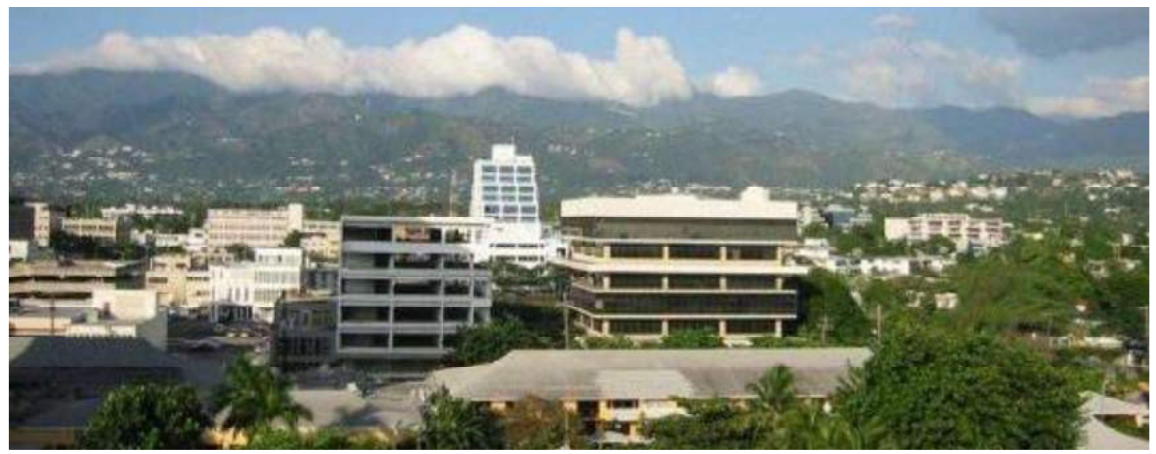

Duration of Training
